Virtual Webinar

Improving Immunization Rates Among Children and Adolescents

In honor of National Immunization Awareness Month, this professional education webinar will provide an overview of childhood immunization and disease rates. There will also be a discussion of vaccine hesitancy and strong vaccine recommendations. In addition, the New Jersey Immunization Information System will provide information about the system and the Docket app, explain the enrollment process for providers, and discuss troubleshooting for commonly identified issues.

Presenters:
Joseph V. Schwab, M.D., Associate Professor of Pediatrics, Rutgers New Jersey Medical School
Teresa Rowe, MPH, New Jersey Immunization Information System (NJIIS) Trainer/Recruiter
